The African Institute of the Interior Design Professions (IID)

Approved Educational Membership Application Form

The African Institute of the Interior Design Professions (IID) is the only professional body representing practicing professional interior architects, interior designers, interior decorators, suppliers and educational institutions in the Interior Design industry in Africa. It operates in South Africa on a national basis with representation in Gauteng, KwaZulu-Natal, the Eastern and Western Cape and Mauritius, with members in greater Africa as well. The Institute is dedicated to establishing, promoting and maintaining expertise, professionalism and high standards throughout the industry.

Join the IID and add your voice to the organization working for the future of the Interior Design profession in Africa

Membership Criteria

Approved Education Member

Any educational institution approved and accredited by the South African Department of Education and offering a minimum of a three-year full-time tertiary program in interior design or interior architecture may apply for membership in the category of Approved Education Member.

Interior Design Educator

Any person who has obtained a minimum 3-year qualification from an accredited institution and a minimum of 3 years teaching experience and whose primary source of income is derived as an educator in any of the Interior Design disciplines may apply for full membership in the category of Interior Design Educator. The applicant will have to satisfy the IID National Council of his/her competence and compliance with the requirements set out in the application form. Any person intending to apply as an Interior Design Educator and who has not yet qualified for the minimum 3 years teaching experience needs to apply as a Candidate member.
